

Web Services Development Features

- Create web service clients in Java SE applications
- Web service client libraries bundled with the IDE
- Call web service operation directly from a JSP pages
- Create a WSDL file directly in the IDE to generate web services files
- Wizards for creating web-tier or EJB-tier web services
- Wizard for creating a web service clients
- Supports Java EE 1.4, including the JAX-RPC and JSR 109 standards

2

Web Services Development Features

- Registry for often used Web Services
- Convenient testing of existing web services
- Automatic management of build infrastructure for web services and web service Clients
- Sample web service projects include

3

Lab1: Web Services Development

- Develop and test a simple Web service
- Write and configure SOAP message handler
- Develop a Web service client

4

Lab2: Develop Web Service Client to a Publicly available Web Service

- Retrieve WSDL document of a public Web service over the net
- Develop a Web service client from the WSDL document

Resources

http://www.javapassion.com/netbeans/masterindex.html#Web_services